Biographical/Historical Sketch

The Nashville Board of Realtors creates a multiple listing service, featuring real estate listings from all of its member realtors to facilitate real estate transactions.

Scope and Contents of the Collection

Cards describing various real estate properties for sale in Middle Tennessee, 1968-1971, created as a multiple listing service by the Nashville Board of Realtors. Although all types of property are included, most cards are for residential property. Geographic area covered by this collection includes Nashville and Davidson County, as well as urban and rural properties located in Cheatham, Robertson, Rutherford, Sumner, Williamson, and Wilson Counties. Cards typically include a photograph, or occasionally a map, on the front of the card, with detailed information about the property on the reverse. Property information generally consists of: street and subdivision location; selling price; date of listing; type of structure; type of construction; number of rooms and features; square feet; amenities and appliances; bus service; school district; special notes about the property or lot; salesperson; and realtor.
